

Franchise Finance Case Study

Background

Sam Wright & Danny O'Reilly were recommended to speak with us by Right at Home when they made the decision to pursue one of their franchises. We subsequently held telephone conversations with them to try and ensure that the business planning process would be as smooth and trouble-free as possible.

The Outcome

Franchise Finance duly prepared a comprehensive business plan for Sam & Danny which was used to successfully arrange the necessary finance with a major bank and consequently enabled them to purchase a Right at Home franchise.

Here's what Sam & Danny had to say:

"Franchise Finance were excellent from start to finish. There was good communication to explain what they do and how they could assist us. The business plan was drafted very quickly and to a high standard. Following a review of the draft business plan, only a few amendments were required and the final copy was completed and ready to go."
