

Franchise Finance Case Study

Background

Laxmi Neupane was recommended to speak with us by Muffin Break when he made the decision to purchase one of their franchises. We subsequently held telephone conversations with him to ensure that both the business planning process and the arrangement of his finance would be as smooth and trouble-free as possible.

The Outcome

Franchise Finance duly prepared a comprehensive business plan for Laxmi which we then used to obtain both asset finance for his equipment and finance from a major bank. Even when a change to an alternative location was proposed, we were able to have all the relevant facilities re-sanctioned so that the business could still go ahead.

Here's what Laxmi had to say:

“Special thanks to the (Franchise Finance) consultants who helped me with the business plan and gained approval for the funding. The entire team was very efficient and reachable all the time. It was a very good experience which I will recommend to others and definitely use again in the future”.
