Franchise Finance Case Study

Background

Safeclean are passionate about caring for their customers carpets and upholstery. The team have vast experience cleaning and caring for furnishings. Whether customers have wool pile carpet or a cotton, linen or even velvet upholstery, Safeclean's expert technicians know their chemistry, so customers furnishings are in safe, professional hands.

Safeclean have gone through the Franchise Finance set up process, we were delighted to learn more about the business model, gaining a thorough understanding of the concept and consequently are pleased to produce professional and comprehensive business plans for Safeclean franchisees.

Safeclean franchisees also undertake financial workshops with the Business Training Academy.

Here's what Maria, Safeclean Franchisor, has to say:

"Since we started working with Franchise Finance back in the spring of 2016, the Franchise Finance team have provided a high level of service to both us as the franchisor and our franchisees. Their approach is always very professional, but also very personal, getting to know people and building a good relationship and rapport with them.

The team are clearly passionate about franchising and supporting franchisors and franchisees through the minefield that is raising finance.

We have also recently started running financial workshops through the Franchise Finance Business Training Academy and received great feedback from our franchisee network.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Franchise Finance to anyone seeking financial support in the franchise sector."

Franchise Finance arrange finance for franchisees, prepare business plans and run business and financial training courses and workshops through their Business Training Academy.
